MATCH APPROVALS AND PERMISSION TO TOUR

LEADERSHIP · ENGAGEMENT · ACHIEVEMENT · ENJOYMENT · RESPECT

FOREWORD

The benefits of participation in sport are widely recognised, not just in terms of health but in building confidence, teamwork and friendships. Scottish Rugby's Values of Leadership, Engagement, Achievement, Enjoyment and Respect apply across all areas of our sport, from mini rugby through to our international teams.

We all have a responsibility to look after the participants in our game, with their wellbeing and safety at the centre of everything we do. Scottish Rugby's aim is that everyone who is involved with our sport has a positive experience and goes on to achieve their full potential both within the game and in life.

World Rugby requires that all matches are played with the approval of the Union hosting the match and that any teams traveling to play in other Unions also have the approval of their Home Union. This process ensures that those regulations relating to player safety and insurance are observed and that the game is played in a controlled and regulated manner. Scottish Rugby supports these objectives.

In view of this, Scottish Rugby has adopted the attached Policy and the associated Regulation (SDR 16 : Match Approvals and Permission to Tour) on the approval of matches. All those within the jurisdiction of Scottish Rugby are obliged to comply with both the Policy and the Regulation.

To support our Policy and Regulation, we will provide advice and guidance to players, clubs and to the volunteers who are the heartbeat of our game. We will also monitor best practice in this area and will, where necessary and appropriate, update our Policy and Regulation accordingly.

POLICY STATEMENT

Scottish Rugby is committed to providing a safe and supportive environment for all those participating in our sport. In doing so we will adopt policies to enable players to participate in an environment which protects the wellbeing of all players and prevents the game being brought into disrepute.

This is achieved in part by ensuring that all matches are played in accordance with the applicable regulations.

Scottish Rugby has therefore adopted a Regulation (SDR 16 : Match Approvals and Permission to Tour) with a view to protecting player welfare and the integrity of the game.

All those under the jurisdiction of Scottish Rugby must comply with SDR 16 : Match Approvals and Permission to Tour.

Key principles:

- Every participant in the game has a responsibility to comply with World Rugby Regulations.

- Scottish Rugby, and all those governed by Scottish Rugby, shall follow best practice in relation to Match Approvals and Tour Permissions.

- Scottish Rugby has adopted a Policy and a Regulation (SDR 16 : Match Approvals and Permission to Tour) in relation to the regulation of Match Approvals and Tour Permissions, and the sanctioning of those who might breach this Regulation. This Regulation conforms to World Rugby's Regulation 16 (Organisation of International Matches; International Tournaments; International Tours) including 16.2 (Matches, Tours and Tournaments below National Representative level).

- Scottish Rugby believes that best practice is represented by SDR 16 and World Rugby Regulation 16.

- No rugby football match or tournament, including in relation to any World Rugby recognised variation of the game, shall take place within Scotland without the approval of Scottish Rugby.

- A team proposing to host a team from another Union, or to visit another Union to play a match or matches, may not do so until they have completed the Permission to Tour process.

- All players, coaches and other team management members must follow the terms of SDR 16 and World Rugby Regulation 16, together with any further guidance published by Scottish Rugby in relation to Match Approvals.
