

Scottish Rugby Public Liability Insurance - Clubs

On behalf of its member clubs, Scottish Rugby arranges Public Liability insurance to cover the risks of playing, training, coaching, officiating rugby or attending and working at a club event for a limit of £30,000,000. The policy responds to legal liability for accidental bodily injury to a third party or accidental damage to their property arising from off-field activities as well as matches, training sessions, practice games as well other rugby-related and organisational activities undertaken by SRU and its member clubs.

The following entities or individuals are included:-

- SRU member Clubs / Teams / Volunteers
- Players
- Coaching personnel / instructors
- Development Officers
- Referees / other match officials
- Voluntary Medical Attendants providing emergency first aid only*

* The policy only covers the provision of emergency first aid. Any personnel providing subsequent injury treatment or rehabilitation should hold appropriate Medical Malpractice or equivalent insurance.

The policy extends to include cover whilst a Club or Team is travelling on a Scottish Rugby sanctioned tour.

The cover is inclusive of SRU's operations, which include governing body activities, ownership and operation of national and professional rugby teams, event and match organisation, and the operation of Murrayfield Stadium, including non-rugby events.
